Description

On this break you can learn more about Italian cooking, but also explore one of most famous well-being Spa towns in Tuscany: Montecatini Terme. In the resort town there are many famous designers shops. The resort is paradise for wellness and relaxation as there are a lot of Spa centres. One more reason to choose Montecatini is the distance: just 30 minutes by low cost train from Pisa and Florence airports/towns. On this break it will be easy for you to combine relaxing spa days, delicious cooking class and why not some guided tours in Tuscany. Private and group Tours to Florence, Siena, Pisa, Lucca, S.Gimignano are available on request.

Included in the package:

- Accommodation in 4* Hotel with breakfast included
- Cooking class with our Italian Chef
- Delightful lunch with Tuscan specialities
- Free entrance to the pool of the hotel
- Free entrance in the thermal swimming pool of the Grotta Spa

The cooking lesson

Our Chef will meet you in the kitchen where he will explain the recipes and cook with you. You will learn to cook the most original Italian recipes. Here is an example of the menu:

- Bruschetta with tomato and Basil
- Spaghetti Bolognese or home made pasta with mushrooms sauce
- Rabbit with olives and vegetables
- Tiramisu or Grandmother cake

This is just an example of what you can prepare. Different menus are offered in the different seasons. If you are vegetarian you can design a special menu with the Chef. After the class you will enjoy the meal with a glass of wine. The classes are usually in small groups of not more than 8 participants.

The Thermal Waters:

The thermal water of the Grotta natural spring is a mineral water containing bicarbonate, sulphate, chloride, magnesium and calcium and reaches the surface at a temperature of 34-35 °c.

If you prefer to combine your Day Spa in thermal pool of the Grotta with a relaxing massage we suggest you to book it in advance (ask the supplier once you book your break). There may be a small charge for the transfer to the spa which is 10 minutes drive away, this will be confirmed once you have booked.

Here are some Daily Tuscany Group Tours you can choose to book before your arrival. Ask the supplier once you book your break.
